COCKTAIL: Niall McEinn

AS Euro 2016 fever continues to grip Belfast, 26 West Bar and Grill are pulling out all the stops to ensure families and kids of all ages can whet their appetites with their special football themed menu.

With 26 West owner Niall McEinn grabbing the headlines on the pitch for Northern Ireland this week staff, along with head chefs Thomas Rocks and Lorcan McAfee, have devised a menu in tribute to the footballing ace – as well as his contemporaries – which is proving a hit with diners.

"Our Euro menu is a real family affair," said supervisor Lynne Sutcu, "we have something for everyone and have really put our heads together to come up with dishes and cocktails to celebrate the Euros and above all be tasty," she laughed.

"Our cocktail maker Mark Kelly has created some fantastic drinks and we have a Niall McGinn Strawberry Gin, Shane Long Iced Tea and from Italy Azzurri Lagoon. For our main dishes our chefs have created Felie Pasta, McClean Your Plate signature house burger and a 6oz Dallas BBQ old smokey burger.

"We are also showing all the matches on our big screens and the menu will run until the end of the tournament.

"The menu is going great so far," she added. "The Niall McEinn cocktail is proving the most popular and as R2W were forced to carry out a Freedom of Information request earlier this year. It is that since the motion was passed on 6 January 2014 there have been a total of 220 contracts awarded at a value of £219,908,291.82 in tax payer's money," a R2W spokesperson told the Andersonstown News.

"2026 employment weeks" or approximately 39 jobs for a year have been created for the long term unemployed in areas of greatest objective need. That's one 12 month job for every £5,638,674 of public money. Not a single contractor has been sanctioned for failure to comply with their social clause obligations.

"Clearly much more now needs to be done by Belfast City Council to ensure other members of the R2W group secured local support for this model at Belfast City Council. Over 1,600 people, the majority of whom were unemployed, and 50
